The Monkey and Cap Seller

Once many monkeys lived on a tree. It was very hot. A cap seller came to sit under the tree in the afternoon. He fell asleep. Soon the monkeys took out the caps from his bag and wore them. When the cap seller woke up, he found that there were no caps in the bag. He looked up and saw that the monkeys were wearing his caps. He threw his cap on the ground. So did the monkeys. He picked up his caps, put them in his bag and went away.

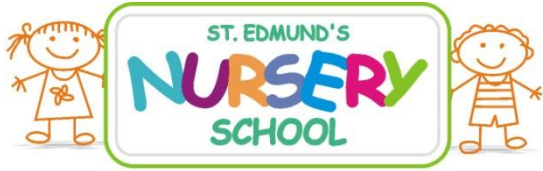

Moral – Never mimic others.

An Ant and A Pigeon

Once an ant fell into a river. A Pigeon saw the ant in the water. It threw a leaf. The ant climbed on the leaf and came out. One day the pigeon was sitting on a tree. A hunter tried to shoot the pigeon. The ant saw this. It bit the hunter's foot. The hunter shouted in pain. The pigeon flew away.

Moral – Help others and they in turn will help you.
